About The Church of the Covenant

The Church of the Covenant is a diverse community in the vibrant cultural center of University Circle in Cleveland, Ohio. Drawing its membership from throughout University Circle and greater metropolitan Cleveland, we seek to love and support our neighbors; encounter God through study, prayer, and worship; encourage questioning; and nurture all God's people.

Covenant's commitment to social justice, advocacy, and outreach dates back to 1947 with the opening of the first integrated preschool in Cleveland, and shortly thereafter the integration of our worshipping community. Covenant fought for the desegregation of Cleveland schools and the ordination of LGBTQ individuals, created an onsite Interfaith Center for Catholic, Muslim and Protestant students and the Covenant University and Community Ministries nonprofit, an umbrella for Covenant and community outreach programs, including Covenant Student Ministries. Covenant currently partners with over 20 local and global organizations.

In addition to a growing residential community, Covenant's neighbors include three major health care facilities and three academic institutions. Our sanctuary is open for meditation and prayer throughout the week, and our building is used for meetings, concerts, and other functions.

Because Covenant Student Ministries is an independent organization affiliated with Covenant, it is part of Case Western Reserve University's campus life as a registered student organization. Learn more at CovenantWeb.org.
