He Touches the Broken Heart

Ah. He touches the broken heart, from secret sorrow springs a tree of light; the roots deep in darkness, the branches of flaming fire, the leaves a thousand blazing torches. Ah.

* Call to Worship

Come, you who are thirsty—
here is living water.
Come, you who are weary—
here is the fount of eternal life.
Let us drink from the well of grace.
Let us worship the Lord!

WELCOME
Convinced of God’s grace, the Church of the Covenant seeks to be a welcoming spiritual home, live God’s inclusive love, express Christ’s compassion, and do justice in the world.

GATHER
We gather to worship God on the Lord’s Day (Sunday) because the Gospels testify that Jesus rose from the dead early on the first day of the week.

CHILD CARE
Child care is provided for infants, toddlers and children in pre-K in our Crecché, located in the education wing. See an usher for directions.

ENCOUNTER
We receive the good news of God’s love, mercy, and justice revealed to us through the Bible.
Call to Confession

Trustee Ann Williams, Lay Worship Leader

Corporate Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, whose goodness extends even beyond our imagining, we confess that we are not always obedient to your will. We are sometimes consumed with our own needs and wants, instead of stepping up to following Jesus’ lessons on compassion and understanding. All too often we complain over trivial matters, when all we need is faith that you are there for us. Open us to your Spirit. Renew us by the power of your love to find joy in following your way. We ask your forgiveness as we silently confess our sins.

Silent Confession of Sin

Declaration of Forgiveness

Hear the good news! The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting. Anyone who is in Christ is a new creation. The old life has gone; a new life has begun. Friends, believe the good news of the Gospel! In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

Corporate Response

CHRISTE SANCTORUM

Jesus, we praise you, now the night is over;

Active and watchful, stand we all before you; Singing, we offer prayer and meditation, Thus we adore you.

Ukrainian Prayer

Oleksander Tyshenko

Arr. by Ruth Elaine Schram

Early each and every morning, when I wake my heart is yearning; Lord above, please hear my prayer. Give us sunshine, give us water, give your blessing to our nation; lift us out of our despair.

Music Notes

Our music for this service reflects on the yearning for God through various symbols and metaphors. The evocative solo song by 20th century American composer Alan Hovhaness depicts the broken heart that is touched by God, and from it springs a tree of life. This longing for spiritual refreshment is depicted in the transparent counterpoint of Palestrina’s famous motet Sicut Cervus (sung for the offertory). The children’s choir collaborates with the Chancel Choir in a beautiful setting of a Ukrainian Prayer.

Organ preludes throughout the season of Lent feature works based on ostinato or “repeating” bass lines or harmonic patterns with titles such as ground, chaconne, and passacaglia. Each musical variation is symbolic of our Lenten journey through repetitions of prayer that lead to spiritual awakening. These works parallel the “journey” oriented choral music that concludes each service.
And I lift my hands and reach toward the heavens, begging you, dear Lord up above, hold us in your loving hands forever, Lord, shower our needy nation with your love.

Oh, dear Lord, we are your children, teach us how we should be living; with each day may we be renewed. People living, people dying, all the same our hearts are crying for the faith and hope and love that come from you.

Text by Deneen Alexandrow Turner

Time for Young Disciples

All children in Kindergarten through 6th grade are invited to the Living Room in the education wing for singing, Bible lessons and creative activities.

Parting Response

Go with us, Lord, and guide the way through this and every coming day, that in your spirit strong and true our lives may be our gift to you.

Sermon

Water for the Journey
Rev. Mark A. Medina

Time for Quiet Reflection

* Affirmation of Faith

We believe

• that Christ’s work of reconciliation is made manifest in the church as the community of believers who have been reconciled with God and with one another;
• that unity is, therefore, both a gift and an obligation for the church of Jesus Christ; that through the working of God’s Spirit it is a binding force, yet simultaneously a reality which must be earnestly pursued and sought: one which the people of God must continually be built up to attain;

* that this unity must become visible so that the world may believe that separation, enmity and hatred between people and groups is sin which Christ has already conquered, and accordingly that anything which threatens this unity may have no place in the church and must be resisted;

In Jesus Christ, we are one in love, acceptance, justice and peace. Amen

* Hymn 510  Jesus, Thou Joy of Loving Hearts  QUEBEC

Prayers of the People

God our Creator, who calls the stars by name and sets the fireflies dancing, who makes the mountains burst into song and emboldens the purple crocus pushing up through the snow, we pause to give deep thanks for the beauty which surrounds us always and for the promise that life goes on.

Set in our hearts a hope more resilient than the coronavirus, and assure us of your power to bring good even out of the most formidable diseases.

God of healing and hope, we pray that you would cool the fevered brow of the sick and speak of love stronger than death to those who lay dying. Give healing compassion to all who care for the sick, and encourage those facing isolation with your peace-giving presence. We pray that coronavirus would move us to reflect upon our responsibility, individually and together, in caring for creation. Let your righteous anger spur us to make the long-overdue changes, so that all of creation might have room to breathe.

Rein in fear, we pray, before it becomes contagious, and nurture trust to form the basis of our dealings with one another. Let the tireless efforts of those on the frontiers of research lead to new and effective treatments, and guide those in positions of power by principles of truth and integrity.

God of tender mercies, we ask humbly that the painful awareness of our own vulnerability lead not to greater fear, but to deeper faith – a faith that nothing in all of creation can separate us from your love – neither today, nor tomorrow.

Here us now, O God, as we join in one voice the prayer your Son taught us to pray. Our Father...
The Lord’s Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever.

Congregational Amen
All are invited to sing.

Sicut cervus
Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina

Sicut cervus desiderat ad fontes aquarum,
As a hart longs for the flowing streams,
Ita desiderat anima mea ad te, Deus.
So longs my soul for thee, O God.

Choral Postlude
arr. Joris van der Herten

I am a poor wayfaring stranger, traveling through this world of woe,
Yet there’s no sickness, toil, nor danger in that bright land to which I go.
I’m going there to see my father, I’m going there no more to roam!
I’m only going over Jordan, I’m only going over home.

I know dark clouds will gather ‘round me,
I know my way is rough and steep
But golden fields lie out before me where souls redeemed their vigils keep.

I’m going home to see my mother, she said she’d meet me when I come
I’m only going over Jordan, I’m only going over home.

I’ll soon be free from every trial, my body sleep in the church-yard.
I’ll drop the cross of self-denial and enter on my great reward.
I’m going there to see my Savior, to sing his praise for evermore.
I’m only going over Jordan, I’m only going over home.
