Welcome
Convinced of God’s grace, the Church of the Covenant seeks to be a welcoming spiritual home, live God’s inclusive love, express Christ’s compassion, and do justice in the world.

Gather
We gather to worship God on the Lord’s Day (Sunday) because the Gospels testify that Jesus rose from the dead early on the first day of the week.

Encounter
We receive the good news of God’s love, mercy, and justice revealed to us through the Bible.

Call to Worship
Whether we stray like sheep or follow faithfully,
   God welcomes us here.
Whether we seek healing and wholeness, or stand ready to extend compassion,
   God welcomes us here.
Whether exhausted from journeys across rough terrain, or renewed and refreshed, our souls at peace, we gather to hear the good news:
   The kingdom of heaven is at hand!
   Let us worship God.
Call to Confession

Elder Matthew Garrett,
Lay Worship Leader

Corporate Prayer of Confession

Holy God, you send us to proclaim the good news of your kingdom to all who are lost, all who are afflicted, all who are captive, all who have been cast out, and all who seek justice and reconciliation. But too often we are content to proclaim the good news of your word within familiar communities where we know others will receive this news with nods of agreement.

Push us beyond what is comfortable and safe, and strengthen us to live your inclusive love, express the compassion of your Son, Jesus Christ, and to do justice in the world. Nourish and fortify our spirits, O Lord, so that we might be the laborers you call us to be. We ask your forgiveness as we silently confess our sins.

Silent Confession of Sins

Music Notes

The anthem and offertory selections in this week’s service connect our worship with the events unfolding in our communities. Wade in the Water is a traditional spiritual often associated with baptism and wading into a river or stream as Jesus did in the Jordan River. On a deeper level, however, the song was used to relay messages along the Underground Railroad. Harriet Tubman used Wade in the Water to lead escaping slaves into water so that trackers would not be able to follow a scent trail. The journey to freedom is further highlighted by Sweet Honey in the Rock, as they describe the variety of God’s children hoping to find true freedom in the promised land. To learn more about this performance ensemble, rooted in African American history and culture, click HERE.

This week’s offertory is a gift, a sharing of talent, to the Covenant Community from member of the Chancel Choir. The Lord Bless You and Keep You was recorded by choir members, in their homes, and assembled to represent a virtual ensemble of voices (thank you Michael Peters).
Declaration of Forgiveness

Hear the good news! As we come to God through prayer, the Holy Spirit answers our calls for the forgiveness of our sins and strengthens us to live each day as disciples of Christ’s love. Friends, believe the good news of the Gospel. In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Gloria Patri

Hymn 579

Gloria be to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Anthem

Sweet Honey & the Rock

Traditional Spiritual

Wade in the Water

Wade in the water, wade in the water, children, Wade in the water God’s a-gonna trouble the water.

See those children dressed in white, God’s a-gonna trouble the water, Well, they must be the children of the Israelites God’s a-gonna trouble the water.

See those children dressed in black, God’s a-gonna trouble the water, They come a long way, ain’t turnin’ back God’s a-gonna trouble the water.

See those children all dressed in blue, God’s a-gonna trouble the water, God said “See my people, they’re comin’ on through” God’s a-gonna trouble the water.

See those children dressed in red, God’s a-gonna trouble the water, It must be the children that Moses led God’s a-gonna trouble the water.

See those children dressed in green, God’s a-gonna trouble the water, They’re movin’ down to that Jordan stream God’s a-gonna trouble the water.

Some say Peter and some say Paul,

May we all “trouble the waters,” with God’s help and guidance, to bring our communities to a place of peace.

OUR LAY WORSHIP LEADER is Elder Matthew Garrett.

He has been making music with Covenant for more than ten years, and he became a member of the church in 2011. Originally from South Carolina, Matthew moved to Cleveland with his partner, Dr. Michael Peters, to join the Music Education faculty at Case Western Reserve University in 2009. He serves the church as Moderator of the Ministry of Faith Formation and as Music Director.

1. All people that on earth do dwell, Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice; Him serve with mirth, His praise forth tell. Come ye before Him and rejoice.

2. Know that the Lord is God indeed; Without our aid He did us make; We are His folk, He doth us feed, And for His sheep He doth us take.

3. Enter then His gates with praise, Approach with joy His courts unto; Praise, laud, and bless His name all ways, For it is seemly so to do.

4. For why? The Lord our God is good, His mercy is forever sure; His truth at all times firmly stood, And shall from age to age endure.

Responsive Prayers of the People
Includes ringing of the Prayer Bell for those impacted by gun violence.

Deacon Julie Mailey

From Long and Winding Road

Compassionate God,
You have compassion enough for all.
    Lord in your mercy,
    Have compassion for us.

Jesus, out of your compassion for us,
you invite us to come away with you
to a place of rest and quiet.
Help us to say yes and then
to be able to come away with you.
    Lord in your mercy,
    Have compassion for us.

Lord, out of your compassion you care for Those who are harassed, helpless, and Lost. Sometimes we feel that way ourselves.
    Lord in your mercy,
    Have compassion for us.

Lord God, let your comfort surround those who lost loved ones to gun violence.
    Tolling of the bell
    Lord in your mercy,
    Have compassion for us.

Lord in your compassion teach us to follow you,
to trust you, to love you and to love as you love.
Lord in your compassion feed us who are hungry;
Physically, emotionally, and spiritually.
Lord in your compassion heal us in the places we need healed.
    Lord in your mercy,
    Have compassion for us.

And Lord in your having compassion for us
Teach us to have compassion for others as you do.
Help us to show compassion in action the way you did.,
And remind us when it is time to come away with you
for quiet and rest.
    Lord in your mercy,
    Have compassion for us.

Hear us now, O God, as we join together in the prayer your Son taught us to say.
Our Father...
The Lord’s Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever.

Congregational Amen

Prayer of Dedication
1. The God of Abraham praise, Who reigns enthroned above;
   The ancient of eternal days, The God of love!
   The Lord, the great I Am, By earth and heaven confessed,
   We bow before Your holy name, Forever blest.

2. Your spirit still flows free, High surging where it will;
   In prophet’s word You spoke of old And You speak still.
   Established is Your law, And change-less it shall stand,
   Deep writ upon the human heart, On sea, or land.

3. You have eternal life Im planted in the soul;
   Your love shall be our strength and stay, While ages roll.
   We praise You, living God! We praise Your holy name;
   The first, the last, beyond all thought, And still the same!

An Update From Session

With heavy hearts, the Session of our church agreed unanimously this week to continue the closure of our building for Sunday worship indefinitely due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Our building remains open only to mask-wearing essential staff, officers, and service persons. Session will reevaluate this at each monthly meeting.

A Reopening task force has begun exploring possibilities to gather again, in person, at some point in the future. Task force participants include: Erin Tomko, Fred Braun, Barb Clint, Sybil Marsh, and Matthew Garrett.

We Keep in our Prayers: Thelma Everhart, Theodis Fipps, Fritz Haiss, David Keltner, Pat Owen-Keltner, Greg Madison, Reathel McWhorter, Tatianna Moss, Susan Moyer (Jonathan’s mother), Nicole Murray, Gene Papp, George Peters (Michael’s father), Kim Voss, and Gabriel (Jenny Conner’s grand-nephew). We pray for those struggling with illness, convalescing, or homebound; patients, family, and staff in our surrounding hospitals; and those who left prayer requests in our Carpenter’s Box.
Our Prayers are with the family and friends of Jean Arnold who died on May 5th and Robert (Bob) Arnold who died on May 10th. Our Prayers are also with Venerine Branham and her family and friends on the death of her daughter Cheryl L. Branham on June 12th. Arrangements are pending.

Covenant Celebrates JUNETEENTH with national treasure “Mississippi” Charles Bevel
Euclid, OH resident and nationally recognized singer, multi-media artist, writer, actor and lecturer “Mississippi” Charles Bevel will engage with us live on Sunday, June 14 at 11:00 a.m., through a Zoom forum with our Covenant Community (see link below).

Charles Bevel has a Masters Degree in Legal Studies, a Bachelor of Arts and is an unofficial Cultural Anthropologist from his diverse studies of Humanity by way of his professional endeavor and journey as a traveler. Bevel is a multi-media artist, lecturer, and civil rights activist. He has acted in such plays as “The Piano Lesson”, “Home”, and “It Ain’t Nothin But the Blues” which he co-wrote and for which he was nominated for a Tony award. Performing under the stage name “Mississippi Charles” he has released albums and CDs in the genre of Blues and Folk under the A&M Records label. The first of which is the album “Meet Mississippi Charles” in 1973. Having lived in Liberia, Africa Mr. Bevel worked in Mexico on the 1968 Olympics. After the assassinations of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and Robert F. Kennedy he was compelled to return to the United States with his young family and be active in the Civil Rights movement.

An early ambition to include traveling as a major part of his life’s journey Mississippi Charles has a distinction of living and/or working in all 50 states. He also can boast of residing in 11 foreign countries. Bevel espouses that our lifetime on this here Earth is a gift.

“Mississippi,” as he likes to be called, created a video for the Sesquicentennial celebration of the 1863 Emancipation Proclamation. In the video, he provides helpful background information about the times, before, during and after the Civil War that set the stage for what has become an annual celebration of “emancipation” from slavery, referred to as Juneteenth. Even the name “Juneteenth” reflects not an ignorance of slaves about when and how emancipation occurred or didn’t occur in certain regions of the country, but a twist and turn with picturesque language that can reflect a joy often filled with irony.

“I’m looking forward to a spirited conversation Sunday that will reflect not only our awareness on the continuous path that descendants of slaves have had to travel, but (given the hopeful responses being display by a ground swell of citizens of all backgrounds to the present issues of violence toward minorities) some insights and answers from all of us can be voiced.”

“Mississippi” Charles Bevel
A Brief History of Juneteenth
On June 19, 1865, two months after the surrender of Confederate General Robert E. Lee at Appomattox Court House in Virginia, Union General Gordon Granger and approximately 1,800 federal troops arrived in Galveston, Texas, to take control of the state and enforce the Emancipation Proclamation.

Granger read General Orders No. 3, which declared in part: “The people of Texas are informed that, in accordance with a proclamation from the Executive of the United States, all slaves are free.”

Juneteenth (short for “June Nineteenth”) is a holiday commemorating this day, which marked the effective end of slavery in the United States.

More than two years before Granger’s announcement, President Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation (on January 1, 1863), which made known that all enslaved people in Confederate states in rebellion against the Union “shall be then, thenceforward, and forever free.”

In reality, the Emancipation Proclamation didn’t instantly free any slaves because it only applied to places under Confederate control and not to slave-holding border states or rebel areas already under Union control. However, as Northern troops advanced into the Confederate South, many slaves fled behind Union lines (Elizabeth Nix writing for History.com. https://www.history.com/news/what-is-juneteenth)

Coronavirus NOT Stopping Carillonneurs!
Greater Cleveland carillonneurs, including our own George Leggiero, continue to provide free music as a solace to a coronavirus-worn public. The outdoor nature of carillon listening supports Governor DeWine’s plea for social distancing as well as his urging to get outside for our mental health.

Here is a link to WCPN ideastream’s stories about the “coalition of carillonneurs” (and stories from 2014 and 2017): https://www.ideastream.org/news/northeast-ohio-carillons-provide-musical-relief-during-pandemic. The Friday concerts are sponsored by the Friends of the McGaffin Carillon in University Circle.

Presbyterian Peace Camp:
The Presbyterian General Assembly, like all things, has been affected by COVID-19 and GA will meet online for a small amount of institutional business. The Presbyterian Peace Fellowship is offering some alternatives to provide some of the joy, community and important issue advocacy that is the heart and soul of General Assembly. During the week of June 19-27, please join virtually for Presbyterian Peace Camp.
